Hello Workgroup!

Attached please find the 3rd draft of the Decision Making Resource Manual. Thanks to each of you for your terrific suggestions!

To set the stage for our meeting this coming Friday (October 21st) from 1 to 2 pm, here are a few points to ponder:

- In our September meeting, the idea emerged to rename Chancellor’s Cabinet to Consultation Council; to narrow the focus of DPC to budget and facilities; and to create a few coordinating council similar to District Curriculum Coordinating Council. We asked if the Workgroup wanted to see the old structure next to the idea of the new structure, or just the new structure. The answer was “just the new,” so draft 2 showed the proposed new structure. There are a total of 4 new groups proposed ... see the groups in italics on the Table of Contents...all of the other groups currently exist as far as we’ve been told so far. These 4 new groups are the result of our brainstorming (Eva, Nancy, Deborah)...these are presented for your consideration.

- We may or may not have consensus on these idea. Therefore, our first agenda item for Friday’s meeting is to decide if you like any or all of the ideas. Which elements do you want to keep in the draft that will be distributed for District-wide review?

In continuing our pattern of sharing our responses to Workgroup members’ comments, also attached please find a copy of our responses to Sean’s comments about draft 2.

We look forward to seeing you next Friday,
Eva, Deborah, and Nancy
