The Court Reporting Club Spell-A-Thon was held on October 28. The judges, Ms. Freer, Ms. Nichols, and Ms. Lynch, presided over the event which saw the contestants working their way through words such as azalea, balsamic, hooligans, effervescent, and necrophilia.

In the end, the battle came down to three contestants, who after four rounds of tongue twisters and mind pondering words, were tied for first place. Congratulations to

FIRST PLACE: Alice Chang, Patty Kwee & Marcie Lescault
SECOND PLACE: Matt Missick
THIRD PLACE: Colleen Pippin

MORE ON CLUB OFFICERS

Keri Leatherman, Treasurer. Keri is currently a resident of Buena Park where she lives with her family and Golden Retriever, Daisy. Having already received job training to be a dental assistant through Cypress College, Keri decided she might like to try the court reporting program. She is currently working on her 180’s and says that psychology is her favorite academic subject. She enjoys soccer, scuba diving, cooking, bowling, foosball, and traveling. Keri’s goal is to become a CSR, make good money, and travel the world.
Marsha Sawa was born in Chicago, Illinois, but grew up in L.A. County. She currently resides in Culver City with her father. Marsha attended Dorsey High School and is a graduate of Cal State Los Angeles with a degree in Business Administration. Marsha is also a licensed physical therapist. Her favorite classes include anatomy and physiology.

Marsha is currently working on her 180’s while working part time as a video transcriber for a captioner. She enjoys all kinds of cuisine and her hobbies include playing the flute and reading. Her future goals include passing the CSR and the RPR, buying a house, and focusing on her realtime skill development. Congratulations, Marsha, on your achievement.

MORE COURTROOM FUNNIES

Q  Now, doctor, isn’t it true that when a person dies in his sleep, he doesn’t know about it until the next morning?
A  Did you actually pass the bar exam?

Q  Can you describe the individual?
A  He was about medium height and had a beard.
Q  Was this a male or a female?
A  Take a guess.
