Paul and Carol Ann Bostwick, Active Community Members, Are Americana Citizen of the Year from Anaheim

Paul and Carol Ann Bostwick are the Citizen of the Year from the City of Anaheim for the Cypress College Foundation's 37th Annual Americana Awards. The Americana Awards, sponsored by Union Bank, N.A., will be held on Saturday, February 25, 2012 in the Disneyland Hotel's Grand Ballroom.

The Bostwicks have been active in Anaheim for a number of years. Paul, an Anaheim business owner for 46 years, has been a Planning Commissioner, a member of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce, and an Anaheim Memorial Hospital Foundation Director. He is a past president of Kiwanis, a scouting volunteer, and an active participant of a dozen other civic organizations. He is proudest of his service as a founding member of the group that established the Orange County Conservation Corp.

Carol, having retired from the health care field, held leadership roles in a number of professional organizations in that industry over a 20-year period. She has served on the Board of Directors of the Anaheim YMCA, Sister Cities, and, in 2000, was named one of the "Spectacular Women of Anaheim." Carol grew up in the spirit of helping others, abiding by her father's philosophy that, "You're never too poor or too rich to give of your time."

Tickets for the Americana Awards are available from the Cypress College Foundation for $225 per person with various sponsorship levels also available. Information is available by calling (714) 484-7126 or at <http://www.CypressCollege.edu> or <http://www.Facebook.com/AmericanaAwards>. The evening begins at 5:30 p.m. with no-host cocktails and a silent auction. Dinner is served at 7 p.m.
