Chancellor, Trustees to Discuss Budget in Campus Meeting on Monday

“Coffee With the Chancellor and Board Members” will take place from 10-11 a.m. in CCCPLX-216.

The campus community is invited to spend time with NOCCCD Chancellor Dr. Ned Doffoney, Vice-Chancellor Fred Williams, and members of the Board of Trustees on Monday, February 28, from 10-11 a.m., in CCCPLX-216.

There will be a short presentation followed by discussion, questions and answers.

The session isn’t specific to the budget, though it will be a topic covered at the event.

“Coffee With the Chancellor and Board Members” provides an opportunity for the campus community to hear the latest news, ask questions and share ideas.

Refreshments will be served.

Language Arts Booksale to Support Scholarships Returns in April; Donations Needed

The Language Arts Division and the Honors Program booksale returns April 11 – 14. It will be held Monday through Thursday, from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., in the Language Arts Lobby on the second floor of the Humanities Building.

It is the first time the event has been held since renovation of the Humanities Building began.

“This is a great opportunity to support student scholarships,” said Professor Kathryn Sonne, Director of the Honors Program and Service Learning.

Donations of “unwanted, but marketable” books are greatly appreciated, she said.

Honors students are willing to help cart the books from your car or office.

For more information, please contact Kathryn Sonne at (714) 484-7452 or ksonne@cypresscollege.edu for assistance in getting the donated books to the storage area.

Art Exhibition Explores Juxtapositions

Cypress College students have transformed the 3,000-square-foot campus Art Gallery by digitally retrofitting the space into a five-room labyrinth as part of an exhibition that opened this week. This class project in exhibition design investigates the different possibilities in video art and video art display through workshops with artist in residence Kiel Johnson, and other participating artists.

THEY SAID IT

“You may have a fresh start any moment you choose, for this thing we call ‘failure’ is not the falling down, but the staying down.”

– Mary Pickford

The women’s tennis team played its first match since the 2009 season on Tuesday at Rio Hondo College, where the Chargers completed a 9-0 sweep. The win was the program’s first since March of 2009.

In doubles competition, Cypress had a strong start with freshmen duo Jamee Biadora and Chelsea Logan opening with a 10-2 win in the number one slot. The Chargers followed by winning the number three slot as freshmen Candie Aquino and Jessica Zarate won a close one, 10-8. Cypress closed the sweep of doubles with freshmen Theresa Roque and Trish Tran coming from behind to win 10-7.

The Chargers needed just two more points to clinch the match and got those points quickly. Biadora started it off in the number one singles slot 6-1, 6-0. Freshman Gianelle Cruz finished off the win in the number six slot winning 6-0, 6-1. Cypress coasted to four more wins in singles to complete the sweep.

The golf team split its opening two Orange Empire Conferences matches of the year with a 407-417 loss to Santiago Canyon College at Strawberry Farms Golf Course in Irvine.

Nominations for Who’s Who Among Students Now Being Accepted

The Cypress College Student Activities Office is participating in the 2011 Who’s Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges. Cypress College Faculty and Division Deans, are asked to submit nominations for outstanding sophomore students.

Please submit student names, including their current mailing address, and student ID numbers to the Cypress College Student Activities Office by Friday, March 4. If brief recommendations can be provided on each particular student nominee, it would be greatly appreciated.

A selection committee will choose the top students to be recognized at the Cypress College graduation ceremony on Thursday, May 26. Certificates will be sent for all selected students to faculty and deans. The certificates can then be presented to the students in any award ceremony that might take place this semester.

Feel free to make copies of the nomination form if multiple student nominees are to be submitted. Please return this form to: Paul Bottiaux, Student Activities Office, or email information to: pbottiaux@cypresscollege.edu.

“...the everyday is structured and influenced by many new juxtapositions in our contemporary world,” said faculty member Devin Tsuno, who curates the exhibit. “Our new digital lives sit beside ancient religious beliefs and practices, while our various apparatus for education might lead us to question our most basic human nature and values. The Quotidian World is a video exhibition that includes large-scale projections, collaborative projects, sculptural, documentary, narrative and installation video that both identifies and examines these provocative subjects.”

These nine artists and two artist collectives use video to evaluate the present day state of daily life.
